

July 26, 2008

Phyllis:

I enjoy attending the group sessions. It grounds me and allows me to listen to others with the same issues. I often feel members of the group help each other. Sometimes it is comforting to know that I am not alone.

Thank you so much for offering me this opportunity. This is a painful time, but I feel very comfortable sharing in the group.

Dave