It's been a little over 12 years since my divorce and my attendance at the support group. I recall all the emotional pains and stress during those pre divorce days. Time seemed to stand still. As I often look back at how hard those days were during those few years of absolute turmoil in my life, I always think of how lucky I was to be able to have the divorce recovery group to be with. I am so happy that I attended and learned and grew with you and the rest of the group.

So, I just wanted to let you know you made an impact in my life and I really wanted to say thank you for donating your time to help myself and all those people who arrive with broken hearts and broken dreams.
