

HONORING ONE ANOTHER

Introduction – We live in a culture where many people are self-centered. They constantly honor themselves and demand it of others. In Christ we do good and serve to honor God. God commands us to honor one another in the Body of Christ out of our love for God and others.

A. We are seeking the applause of Heaven, not that of mankind.

Matthew 6:1-4

B. The Apostle Paul provides us an example of authentically following Jesus.

1. Romans 1:8-10

2. Romans 12:10

3. Romans 16:1-16

C. We need to practice the art of honoring one another.

Conclusion – We may have failed to express our love and respect for others, but it is never too late to start honoring others.
