

SEARCHING FOR SELF-FULFILLMENT

Introduction – We are a society of individuals on their quest for personal happiness. The results of this quest are increased anxiety, anger, and depression. We have forgotten the ancient truths about the road to meaningfulness.

A. It is found in self-denial rather than self-fulfillment.

Mark 8:34-37

B. It is found in sacrificial love rather than romantic love.

Philippians 2:3-8

C. It is found in service rather personal freedom.

Galatians 5:13-15

Conclusion – The pursuit of personal happiness has resulted in increased individual isolation and discontentment. The way to fulfillment is found only through the filling of the Spirit of God.

Ephesians 5:17-20
