

No Excuses

Introduction – People are full of excuses for why they did certain things and failed to do other things. When it comes to the just judgment of God, people will be without an excuse.

A. The Good News is the power of God that can save us!

Romans 1:16-20

B. The consequences of exchanging the truth of God for a lie.

Romans 1:21-25

C. The societal and personal symptoms of sin.

Romans 1:26-32

D. Our judgment of others only condemns ourselves.

Romans 2:1-11

Conclusion – Natural law is the basis for God's justice for people who never receive the revealed will of God in the Scriptures.

Romans 2:12-16

Discussion Questions

1. How will God judge people who have never been exposed to Word of God?
2. How have we all initially exchanged the truth of God for a lie?
3. What are the consequences for us personally and societally for our rebellion against the knowledge of God?
4. How does the gospel save us from the wrath of God for this universal rebellion?