

A WORD TO GRADUATES

Introduction – Every society is motivated by human-created stories. The most powerful and lasting ones plug into the truth in a disguised way. The Marvel comic book series keeps coming to the big screen. They all have some common themes.

- A. You are potentially, uniquely gifted with supernatural powers. Others sometimes praise or persecute you for using them.

1 Corinthians 12:27-31; 13:13

- B. The source of these powers is the indwelling Spirit of God.

Ephesians 3:16, 20-21

- C. These special powers are not for selfish use but are given to serve others.

1 Peter 4:10-11

- D. This is a real battle between good and evil not a make believe one.

Ephesians 6:10-12

Conclusion – Our mission is to save the human race.

Mark 3:13-15

Matthew 28:19-20
