

BIBLE BELIEVERS NEED A SAVIOR TOO

Introduction – The Roman letter points out the fact that everyone believes in something and it will become their god. When we worship anything less than the Creator God it warps us. The gifts of common sense and a conscience let us know there is a Creator God and what is morally right before Him. Therefore, everyone is without excuse.

A. Christians take comfort in their knowledge of the Bible.

Romans 2:17-24

B. Bible baptism has no value unless it is the preface to a life of faith.

Romans 2:25-29

C. The abuse of God's grace is strongly condemned.

Romans 3:1-8

D. The knowledge of the Bible makes us conscious of sin.

Romans 3:9-20

E. We are in a right relationship with God by faith in his sacrifice made on our behalf.

Romans 3:21-31

Conclusion – Christians are entrusted with the written revelation of God's will. It is our faith in what God has done for us in Jesus that saves.
