

THE DISCIPLING PRINCIPLE – PART 6

Introduction – The discipling process is four-generational in nature. It leads to a multiplying ministry versus a terminal one.

- A. The congregation in Thessalonica is a good example of how the discipling process begins.

1 Thessalonians 1:4-10

1 Thessalonians 2:6-12

- B. Building a transparent spiritual relationship brings healing.

James 5:13-16

Conclusion – We are not transformed into Christ-like character by time alone or individual effort. It is the work of the Spirit through the lives of other disciples and the Word of God that changes us.
