

PREPARED TO GIVE AN ANSWER – PART 2

Introduction – Next Sunday we begin our fall series entitled “Questions about Christianity that Deserve Rational Answers.”

- A. We are charged by God to be prepared to give rational answers to people’s questions.

1 Peter 3:15-16

- B. We are going to use a different format for the length of this series, especially how we close out our presentation.

Acts 20:7

1. Having an invitation song and encouraging people to come forward for prayer or baptism is not based on a New Testament example for the Christian assembly.
2. We will provide extensive notes a week in advance, so you can look it over to formulate questions that you or others might have.
3. We will close our presentation with prayer followed immediately by an opportunity for anyone to ask questions or write questions that will be read and answered.
4. Sometimes when we have only a few questions then we will break into small groups to briefly discuss the topic.

Conclusion – This is an opportunity to become better equipped to answer these questions yourself. It also provides an opportunity to invite people who want to hear rational and clear answers to these foundational questions.
