

THE HUMAN PREDICAMENT

Introduction – We discover that we are embodied beings searching for meaning in our ordinary lives. The character we choose to develop through suffering is destined to die. Much of our lives are spent trying to escape necessary suffering and in the denial of death.

A. The Necessity of Divine Intervention

Hebrews 1:1-3

B. God's Incarnation Was Essential

Hebrews 2:9

Hebrews 2:14-15

C. How we can know that the eternal God can relate to our human condition?

Hebrews 2:17-18

D. What we fix our thoughts on determines the nature of our lives.

Hebrews 3:1

Conclusion – The human issues of the meaning of life, necessary suffering, and death are all answered in Jesus and the work of the Spirit of Christ in us.

Romans 8:15-17
